

Shape Up!

Did you know there are many different designs and shapes of wind turbines?

Engineers and inventors are still trying to figure out the best way to capture energy from the wind. Here are some examples of shapes:

Now it's your turn! In the boxes below, draw and label your new shapes of turbine. Think about where it would be located and how it would move.

Inspired by human movement

A large empty yellow box for drawing a turbine inspired by human movement.

Inspired by an animal or bird

A large empty yellow box for drawing a turbine inspired by an animal or bird.

Inspired by you!

A large empty yellow box for drawing a turbine inspired by the user.